RICHARD A. WEGMAN CHIEF COUNSEL AND STAFF DIRECTOR

COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

March 17, 1976

Mr. George Bush Director Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D. C. 20506

Dear George:

The other evening you mentioned your concern that the resolution recently reported out by the Government Operations Committee would, in effect, be the cause of even further proliferation of sensitive intelligence information. As you know, I share your concern about this problem and you have my assurance that I will do what I can to resolve it.

If, in fact, a new intelligence oversight committee is created by the Senate, Senator Ribicoff and I plan to introduce legislation that would amend Section 662 of the Foreign Assistance Act to require that Senate reports required under Section 662 go to only the new Committee on Intelligence Activities and the Appropriations Committee. While I recognize that amending the Hughes-Ryan Amendment would not totally eliminate the problem of proliferation, it would be an important step in the right direction. Enclosed is a copy of my proposed language.

I have talked with Ed Muskie and Henry Bellmon, Chairman and ranking Republican on the Budget Committee. It is correct that the Budget Committee intends to review intelligence activities as they affect the budget. I understand that several committee members have expressed an interest in the intelligence area. Like you, I trust the Budget Committee's need for information will be confined to overall figures and not operational details.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me or have your staff contact John Childers, Minority Counsel of the Government Operations Committee.

Sincerely,

Zharles H. Percy

United States Senator
